

CALIFORNIA LEGISLATIVE BLACK CAUCUS

The CLBC is Proud to Celebrate our Heritage

From Monday, February 3 to Friday, February 14, 2014 located on the 2nd Floor Rotunda, the CLBC will have on display an exhibit of “Unsung Heroes of the Civil Rights Movement.” The CLBC has chosen to identify unsung heroes of the Civil Rights Movement and pay homage to them.

On Monday, February 10, 2014, the CLBC will host a Black History Month Breakfast in honor of Dr. Clarence Jones, who in his distinguished and heralded career served as political advisor, counsel and draft speechwriter for the Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

February 2014 is Black History Month

On Monday, February 10, 2014, the CLBC will honor “Unsung Heroes of the Civil Rights Movement” from their districts, on both the Senate and Assembly Floors.

From Monday, February 17 to Friday, February 28, 2014, located on the 2nd Floor Rotunda, the CLBC will have on display an exhibit of “EBONY and Jet Magazines from the Civil Rights Era.” This exhibit is courtesy of Assemblymember Cheryl Brown.

On Wednesday, February 19, 2014, Senator Holly J. Mitchell, Chair of the CLBC and the CLBC members, along with “Indivisible”, will co-host a film screening at the Sacramento Guild Theatre on the riveting documentary film: “American Promise.” The film spans 13 years of the life of Idris, and his best friend, Seun, who make their way through one of the most prestigious private schools in the country. This provocative, intimate documentary presents complicated truths about America’s struggle to come of age on issues of race, class and opportunity.

The California Legislative Black Caucus is proud to recognize February 2014 as Black History Month and urges everyone to join in celebrating the accomplishments, the talents and the many contributions that African Americans have made in our communities.
